

Painting by former LUCERO student Nicolas Sanchez
Copyright 2008 Lansing Community College

César E. Chávez Day, 2008

Monday March 31, 2008

2:30 pm – 8:00 pm (see schedule below)

Cesar Chavez Learning Center, Gannon Building Room 262
& GB 134

Main Campus - Lansing Community College

Campus Map: <http://www.lcc.edu/maps/campus.htm>

In celebration of the life of César Estrada Chávez, the Latino Student Alliance (LSA), LUCERO Program, Women's Resource Center/Returning Adult program and Lansing Community College invite you to attend various events going on throughout the day at LCC's Main Campus to commemorate Cesar E. Chavez Day. Casual dress suggested.

Program

2:30 pm– 4:00 Informational Session-Cesar Chavez Learning Center, GB 262

Representatives from various local unions will hold an informational session to discuss the issues that will be on the ballot this fall that concerns workers rights. They will also speak on the importance of unionizing.

4:00pm-6:30 pm Movie & Discussion-GB 134

Las Mujeres de la Caucus Chicana (Women of the Chicana Caucus)

This film profiles the journeys and experiences of six Latinas who answered the Civil Rights and Feminist Rights Movements' call-to-action in the 1970s and came together at the 1977 National Women's Conference in Houston. A discussion will immediately follow movie.

7:00pm-8:00pm-Reception-Cesar Chavez Learning Center, GB 262

Please join us for cake and other refreshments. We will have live acoustic conjunto music featuring Kookie Hernandez.

You may attend any part of the above programs. Everyone is welcome!

For more information about this event please contact Sara M Holguin at 517-483-9803
holguins@lcc.edu or Ana M Woehr at 483-1215 woehra@lcc.edu